Admission Brochure

Shanghai Summer School 2021 – Chinese Traditional Music Program, a Shanghai Municipal Government Scholarship Program hosted by Shanghai Conservatory of Music (SHCM), will be held online from June to September 2021. It aims to better promote the international education of the SHCM through more diverse Chinese culture experience programs for international students.

I. Theme

The Shanghai Summer School - Chinese Traditional Music Program has been successfully held for nine consecutive years since 2011, and achieved good results. Building on its previous achievements, the 2021 edition of this event will focus on "Chinese Traditional Musical Instruments (Erhu, Guzheng and Sheng)" and "Chinese Art Song Singing", giving international students a taste of the rich and profound Chinese music culture.

II. Time and Activities

i) Time: June – September 2021

ii) Activities

    a) Master Class: Through workshops and open classes by prestigious educators and famous performing artists and training courses by young performers of the SHCM, participants will get professional instructions and learn traditional performing techniques, thus achieving rapid progress in their music performance.

    b) Culture Lecture: Lectures on topics including "The Art of Chinese Music", "The Aesthetics of Music", "Chinese Culture" and "Contemporary China" will be delivered by reputed scholars to introduce the development of contemporary China and different aspects of Chinese music culture.

iii) This year's program will be delivered entirely online.

III. Enrollment Quota
